

Good Man Down

It doesn't take much to keep a good man down
It doesn't take much to keep a good man down

Anyone can reach the top and anyone can fall
If no-one is on your side you'll get nowhere at all
There's so much potential never saw the light of day
'Cause someone else just kicked it down and kept it locked away

It doesn't take much to keep a good man down
It doesn't take much to keep a good man down

It only takes a harsh word when the time is right
It only takes resistance when he's too tired to fight
Show him opportunity but drop him on the way
Leave him in confusion about anything you say

It doesn't take much to keep a good man down
It doesn't take much to keep a good man down
