

Stay

Don't want to move
I might just stay in bed
Trying to get rid of all the words inside my head
Don't be scared
Just a phase I'm going through
I like it here, and this is all I want to do

So – please let me stay
For another day
Don't take me away
I think I'll be okay
If you just let me stay

I've seen the world
Seen the way you live
Done all I can and given all I had to give
Hold my calls
Turn out the light
You know I won't be going anywhere tonight

Life is hard
The world is tough
I'm doing nothing until I've had enough
